

European Expert Meeting

27 June 2016

Meeting the subsistence minimum of a child? Measures, objectives and principles of monetary transfers for children in European states

Agenda

Venue: NABU Naturschutzbund, Charitéstraße 3, 10117 Berlin

- | | |
|---------------|--|
| 10.30 -11.15 | Registration |
| 11.15 | Welcome Speech
Christel Riemann-Hanewinckel, President of AGF |
| 11.25 | The Idea of a Subsistence Minimum for Children
Maria Wersig, University of Applied Arts Dortmund, Germany |
| 11.45 | How are Families with Children supported by the Benefit and Tax Systems in the different EU Member States and do these Measures secure the basic Needs of Children?
Inputs and Questions
Austria
Sonja Dörfler, Austrian Institute for Family Studies (ÖIF), Vienna
Belgium
Toon Vanheukelom, University Leuven
United Kingdom
Steve McKay, University of Lincoln |
| 13.15 – 14.15 | LUNCH BREAK |
| 14.15 | How much do Children and their Families need for a decent Life?
Myriam Bobbio, UNAF, France |
| 14.45 | Plenary Discussion and Conclusions:
How can a subsistence minimum for children be defined?
Do all children need the same?
What can be learned from the other European states? |
| 16.00 | Farewell and End |

